

WARNING: This training event could bring LIFE to your church

MESSY FIESTA

A TRAINING DAY

Cost £10 including lunch – email metb@scottishchurcheshouse.org

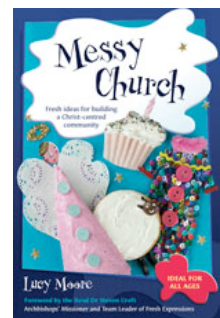

SAT 27 FEBRUARY 2010 10.30AM – 4PM
ST SILAS CHURCH, GLASGOW
69 Park Road, Woodlands, Glasgow G4 9JE

www.messychurch.org.uk

The event is a must for anyone interested in building a Christ-centered community where parents, carers and children can share their creativity, eat a meal and worship together outside of Sunday worship. It's ideal for Worship Leaders, Local Preachers, Ministers, Deacons, Sunday School teachers – the sky is the limit! There will be time to learn from Lucy Moore, to try out activities and make plans for the future.

Lucy Moore is the author of Messy Church and a professional actor and storyteller. Based in the south of England, she is an experienced speaker, workshop leader and performer. Lucy is a member of the Barnabas Ministry Team. With a special interest in drama and storytelling, all-age church and collective worship in schools, her work takes her into schools and churches across the region and beyond. She is a member of Equity, an accredited Godly Play teacher, is part of the Children's Advisory Group for Portsmouth Diocese, on the leadership team of and an Associate Missioner for Fresh Expressions.

For booking contact Fiona Inglis

Email: meth@scottishchurcheshouse.org Phone: 01786 820295

Methodist Office, Scottish Churches House, Kirk St, Dunblane, FK15

