

The Mission and Discipleship Council invites you to the beautiful Paisley Abbey to explore ways of doing worship that celebrates and nourishes our whole life together as well as engage people who are not connected with us.

Weaving Worship

5th March 2011

Patterns Of Worship: Weaving Together Traditional and Contemporary Strands

Main Speaker: Doug Gay, lecturer in Practical Theology at Glasgow University

There will be five different themes explored in the workshops, each with morning and afternoon options.

Prayer

11:30am Growing our own inner life in worship

13:30pm Helping others to grow their inner life in worship

Singing

11:30am Singing out in worship

13:30pm Helping others sing out in worship

Inclusion

11:30am Including adults with learning disabilities in worship

13:30pm Worship in priority areas

Working Together

11:30am Hub Church – working with other churches in your area to develop worship

13:30pm Annandale and Eskdale Worship Resourcing Network – Local people resourcing one another.

Children and families

11:30am Messy Church Worship and what has been happening in Helensburgh

13:30pm Born Contemplative – quiet forms of prayer for children

Other Details

The day will start at 10:00am with tea and coffee, with our main speaker at 10:30am. Lunch will be provided for all participants. We will end the day with some “Weaving Worship” a form of inclusive worship that ties up all the threads of life and faith. The day will finish at 4:00pm

How to get to the Abbey

Paisley Abbey is situated in Paisley Town Centre and directions can be found on their website:

www.paisleyabbey.org.uk

The nearest train station is Paisley Gilmour Street.

How to register

For registration and enquiries, please contact:

Anna Reid

Senior Administrator

Faith Expression Team.

Tel: 0131 225 5722 ext 359

Email: areid@cofscotland.org.uk

Online booking: www.madstuff.biz

Cost

£15 per person